Stage plot

Set 2 plays in an arc around Anuka, with the drawing projected behind

Stage plot · audience at the bottom · not to scale

Stage plot · Set 2 arc, Set 1 centre front

Set 2 sits in an open arc around Anuka so the players can see each other. Seen from the audience: Reso front left, Rainer back left, Guram front right, and Mawil back right beside the screen, so the audience sees both him and the projection. Set 2 is set up before doors, and Aleksandre plays centre front, ahead of it, so the changeover is only clearing his position.

Set 1 · Aleksandre Kharanauli (opener)

Solo voice and electro-acoustic guitar: 2 inputs, 1 wedge and a power outlet. He brings his own guitar; everything else is supplied by the venue.

Ch	Source	Mic / DI	Stand

- 1 standard power outlet at his position (for a possible pedal or tuner)
- Console needs parametric EQ and onboard reverb
- Position: centre front, ahead of the Set 2 setup

Set 2 · Kiknadze / Machavariani / Frey / Kontridze + Mawil

Set 2 needs 6 inputs to the PA (up to 12 with the optional channels), 4 monitor mixes, and a video feed from Mawil's iPad to the projector.

Mawil · live drawing

Mawil and the audience develop a comic story together while the band plays: the audience suggests where the story is set, who the main character is and what happens next, and he draws it live on the big screen. If there is a presenter (provided by the organiser, not the venue), they move through the audience with a microphone to collect suggestions; Mawil talks back on his own mic. He brings his iPad and an HDMI adapter.

- Large screen and projector, with an HDMI cable to his position
- Wireless clip-on (lavalier) mic for Mawil, so both hands stay free to draw
- Wireless handheld mic for the presenter in the audience, if there is one
- Room that can be darkened, with the back rows close enough to the screen to see fine detail
- Small table and chair, power
